The cadets of M. M. I. are preparing to put on "The Scout of the Philippines," a popular military play, on Monday evening, April 1, which promises to be one of the best ever given at the institution. The M. M. I. orchestra will make its first appearance of the year on this occasion. It is being trained by Prof. Frost, of Lexington.

The annual reception of the Senior and Junior classes of the Millersburg Female College, which was held Friday evening from eight to twelve o'clock, proved to be one of the most brilliant receptions ever held in the institution. The color scheme was green and red, emblematic of St. Patrick's Day. Grill's orchestra of Lexington furnished the music. When the guests had assembled they were conducted to the parlor where they went down the first receiving line made up of the Seniors, thence to the library where they went down the line of Juniors. The number present was large and twenty different towns and communities were represented. A delightful lunch was served in the dining room. The following is a partial list of visitors:

Messrs. Melvaine, Alex Melvaine, Elgin Peck, J. R. Weiler, Claude Saunders, Pearl Gill, T. R. Lyons, Clifton Taylor, Carlin Whaley, Misses Annie Louise Whaley, Eldiva Saunders, Maude Knight, Flemingsburg; Messrs. Wm. Statton, U. Suco, Albert Weiman, J. L. Ammerman, J. W. The funeral of Mr. F. F. Hurst who died at his home Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock after a brief illness of pneumonia, was conducted Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Methodist church by his pastor, Rev. Thos. Smith, and was buried under the auspices of Amity Lodge No. 40 F. & A. M. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather conditions during the day, the Methodist church with its large seating capacity was taxed to its utmost and many were compelled to stand. Elder Smith who was in charge of the services delivered an able discourse. In speaking of the deceased he said he had known him but a short time, but he knew the home to be a happy one and he always felt better for being there. In his remarks to the family he was indeed touching. A number of appropriate selections were rendered by a quartet consisting of Misses Ruth Norris, Belle Taylor Judy, Doctors H. C. Burroughs and F. A. Herbert, organist, Miss Lula McNamara, violinist, Miss Esther Nell Miss Nell's obligations to the selections rendered appealed to every heart. The floral tributes were numerous as well as the handsomest ever seen here. The blue lodge masons were escorted to the grave by Carlisle commandery No. 18, of which the deceased was a member, holding the third highest office in the commandery. The services at the grave were conducted by Worshipful Master M. P. Collier of Amity Lodge No. 40 F. & A. M. The services at the grave were marred somewhat by the heavy downpour of rain. Among the many prominent Masons present were Deputy Grand Master J. H. Ewalt, of Shawhan, and Past Grand Master S. K. Veach, of Carlisle. Visitors were present from all surrounding towns. The following is a partial list of the relatives and immediate friends of the family present: Mrs. Eva Adams, a sister of the deceased, and son, Brooks Adams; Mr. Carl Hurst, a brother, of Ewing; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wells, of Elizaville; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vansant, Mr. Winn, Mr. Chas. Rhodes, Mr. Chas. Lytle, Messrs. M. D. Hurst and Winn Hurst, Flemingsburg; Mr. Hood Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Donaldson, Winchester, Mr. Archie Cochran, Berry.

Spring Millinery.

On account of the backward season and the very bad weather we have decided not to hold our regular spring opening until April 3 and 4. However we are now showing the most exquisite line of tailored and ready to wear hats for early spring that the Eastern markets have ever shipped us. The prices this year will surprise you although the styles are prettier than ever.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES

—Joseph M. Leach purchased two tracts of land on the Elizabeth pike containing about 100 acres for $14,996.61.

—The supply of stock feed in Woodford county is well nigh exhausted and much feed in that county is being imported.

—W. C. Dickerson has purchased of Arthur Talbott a farm near Colville on the Millersburg and Cynthiana pike containing 96 3-4 acres for $9,550.

—Mr. George Burke, who for a number of years has lived in Bourbon county, has moved to Scott county to act as an agriculturist on the farm of Mr. Jack Shuwall.

—The scarcity of feed in Bourbon county is a problem confronting the farmers. Many are importing feed while others are using cotton seed hulls in the place of corn, clover hay.

—Caywood & McClintock, of this city, disposed of two fine teams of mules Saturday at fancy prices. One was sold to John M. Clay for $450 and another to Mrs. Thos. H. Clay for $465.

—The stockholders of the People's Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouse company, which was recently organized in Carlisle, have elected Dr. J. W. Burns of this city, president, and Harry Kennedy, cashier of the Farmers' bank, secretary and treasurer.

—Kentucky Colonel, full brother to Kentucky Choice, a three year old purchased by Louisville parties for $3,000, is now in training at the farm of R. Walter Briggs near Shelbyville. This is the highest price ever paid for a three year old saddle colt.

—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Burley Tobacco Society held in Lexington Friday, a report has it, the purchase of a tobacco factory in Louisville was discussed but the report could not be confirmed. No further sale of the 1909 crop was reported.

—The farmers should avail themselves of this opportunity in getting all implements and necessary tools for spring work in proper condition. Test the seed corn, mend the harness and do other little things that sometimes need their attention before the spring work begins.

—The Montana "fever" seems to be working upon a large number of farmers in the northern part of the county, in the Plum Lick neighborhood, from the fact that a number have decided to move to that state. They are Joe and Ben Foley, Chas. Julian and K. I. Richie, Keller Caywood, Vernie Martin, William Dean, Chas. Flackerstein, Dee Stull, John Mullikin and John Welsh.

—Prolonged disagreeable weather conditions has had the effect of delaying the farmers of Bourbon county as there has been no suitable weather for plowing or sowing or making any preparations whatever for the spring work which usually begins prior to this season of the year. The heavy downpour of last week left the ground unfit for plowing and even if the weather conditions continue favorable it will be several days before the work can begin.

Ex-Bourbon Has Good Stable.

The Lexington Leader of Sunday said: "In the stable of R. C. Frakes can be found one of the raciest looking colts at the track in the two year old Gin Kickey, by Royal Flush, out of Roman Bell. This colt has shown well in his early training and is eligible to the Juvenile Stake at Louisville and the Harold Stake at Latonia. Another in the same stable is the three year old maiden Palmist Perian by Tanymeister, out of Etta Lee, who did not do as well in his training last year and was never started, but who has improved a great deal in his three year old form."

The Farm Special Train.

The Farm Special train to be run over the F. & C. and L. & N. under the auspices of the Kentucky Agricultural College will arrive in Paris at 9 o'clock a. m. on Friday, March 29.

The Farm Special will consist of eight cars. One will be devoted to carrying, one to horticulture, one to live stock and poultry, one to field crops, one flat car for exhibition of the live stock, one to home economics, women's work, and two living coaches for the lecturers.

Various topics under the above heads will be discussed by the best authorities available. The train will afford rare educational opportunities. Literature on various farm topics will be given away. No money or labor has been spared to make this train literally a "university on wheels."
